MESSAGE/QUOTES/STATEMENTS:

The first ever TNK Job and Business Fair conducted in Siquijor island through Local Gov't Unit of Siquijor and in cooperation with DTI Siquijor. Various employers were there to hire applicants in the island. Local entities namely, Prince Hypermart, Taytay sa Kauswagan and Qualfon Dumaguete. There was also a Diskwento Caravan by Prince Hypermart Larena. Raffle prizes like 2kls NFA rice and goodies were given to lucky customers every hour. Different government agencies also were present to provide various services to the clients such as SSS, PhilHealth, DENR, DOST and NFA. DOLE Assisted Organizations exhibited their products as part of the effort on strengthening the local delicacies of the province. Fresh Milk, the famous Torta, Alamang and other local foods are being displayed. Herbal teas and oils were also there. Many people gathered on that very significant day to witness the event and of course, to avail the different kinds of services offered. The OWWA RO7 represented by John Lee Nistal released 10 checks to 10 beneficiaries of the Balik Pinas! Balik Hanapbuhay Program worth ₱ 20,000.00. DOLE SFO spearheaded by OIC, Nole R. Torres turned over carpentry materials to five LSK beneficiaries.

As what Mam Zusan Siao, PESO Manager said, "The LGU Siquijor is thankful enough to have this kind of activity. We were able to help not only the constituents of Siquijor municipality but to all Siquijodnons." Hon. Joy Lopes de Andrade, Acting Mayor in the Municipality Siquijor said also that she was indeed very happy that her Town was able to experience this kind of momentous event and she hoped for other future activities like this.
